

Virukill represents a revolutionary approach to animal hygiene that has advanced the art of disinfection into a new era.

KEY BENEFITS

- Eradication of pathogens in animal quarters before occupation
- Exclusion of pathogens once animals are housed
- Suppression of the pathogens evade attempts of eradication
- Superior ability to kill micro – organisms under field conditions
- Ability to penetrate cell walls
- High safety profile and environmentally friendly to operator and animal
- Truly non – corrosive and does not oxidize
- Non – toxic at recommended rates
- High surfactant content with excellent wetting and penetration abilities
- Highly active in presence of organic matter, includes heavy soiling
- Not pH dependant, works in wide range of temperatures
- Not pH dependant
- Tested with over 100 trial data reports
- Suitable for use in Veterinary Clinics, Biosecurity quarantine, all animal and poultry hygiene including housing and general farm hygiene

Distributed exclusively in New Zealand by;
AHD Ltd Fax 06 8773205 Ph 06 8773201 e mail sales@ahdltd.co.nz
www.ahdltd.co.nz

Good hygiene sets the foundation for success, Virukill's efficacy is unmatched